Everyone needs a purpose; yet to find this purpose is sometimes hard. You must strive to find your goals so that life will hold all that you hope for.

Good luck
Harry
John

January, We started in good old homeroom D-7 and we progressed/degressed (circle one) to Miss Weiskman's financial Ed. class.
Now that we've gone from one extreme back to the same extreme. Where do we go from here?

Joe Gigginbottom
ZB

But always remember that time is precious.
Each second will bring something new;
sometimes it will be victory, yet more often, defeat. And through it all there will be that ray of hope to reach for, and hopefully, to touch.

Then one day your purpose will hit you and you will realize what is really the most important. And because of your discovery, beauty will become obvious in the simplest of things: the wind, a song, or even a smile.

Now that your goals are determined, the search will again begin, and you must decide how you will use your life, and also realize that you too are important.

But keep in mind, that although you may see things as a whole, each object and idea has its own individuality, some little trait that makes it special and important.

11th

And during this time you will sometimes have to be alone; to wonder
.... and think.

you must hold on to your ideas and have confidence in yourself.
And only by doing this will you keep from being disillusioned.
But never try too hard, or it will be like chasing a butterfly

"... the more you chase it, the more it will elude you.
But if you turn your attention to other things, it comes and softly sits on your shoulder."

This year's basketball team boasted a 15-9 record, making this year the best ever for varsity basketball. Getting off to a good start, the players impressed everyone. As the season progressed, we found ourselves with a player listed as one of the top 25 players in the state. Terry Varner, as a Junior, led the team in scoring, as well as overall performance. He has well deserved to be rated in the top 25.

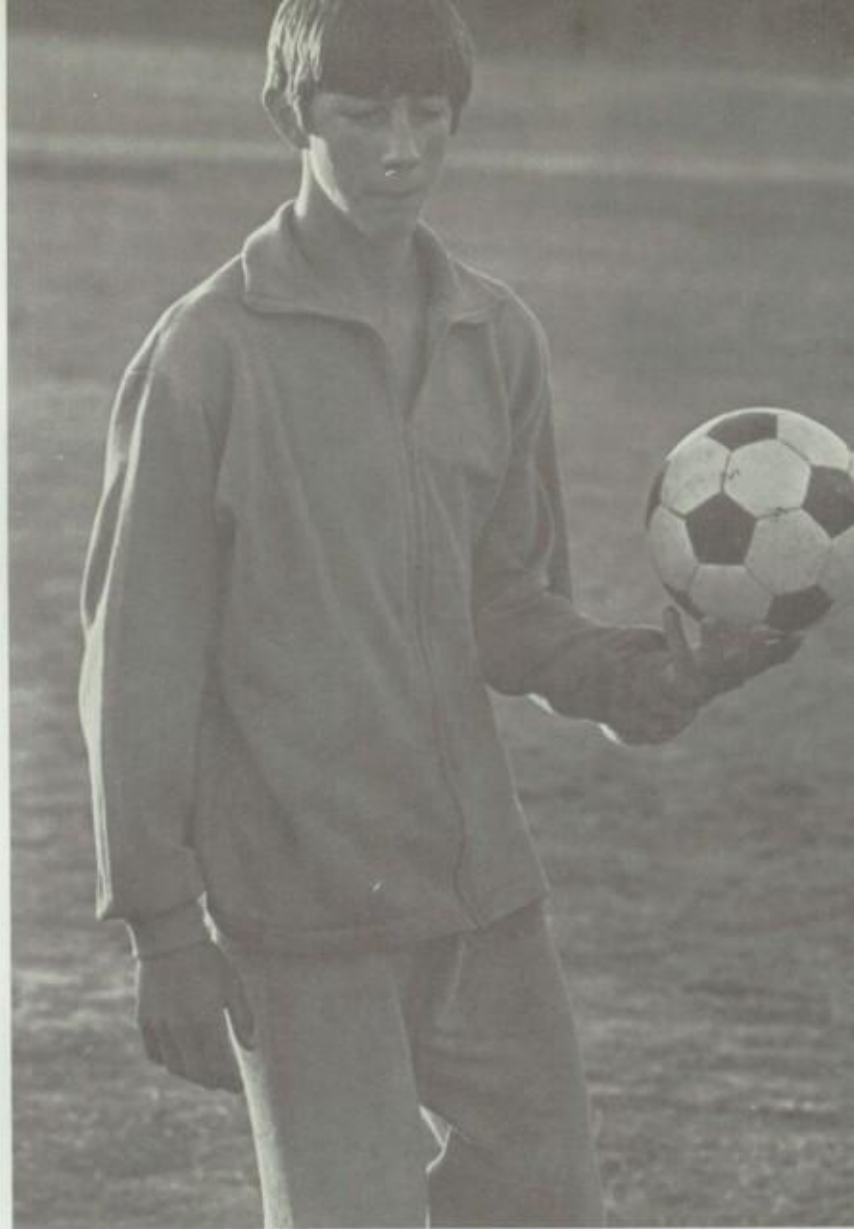

The team's 2 most triumphant wins would have to be over Lakeshore. Beating Lakeshore twice was a joy to everyone. These two wins, without a doubt, showed now the region outcome should have been.

SOCCER

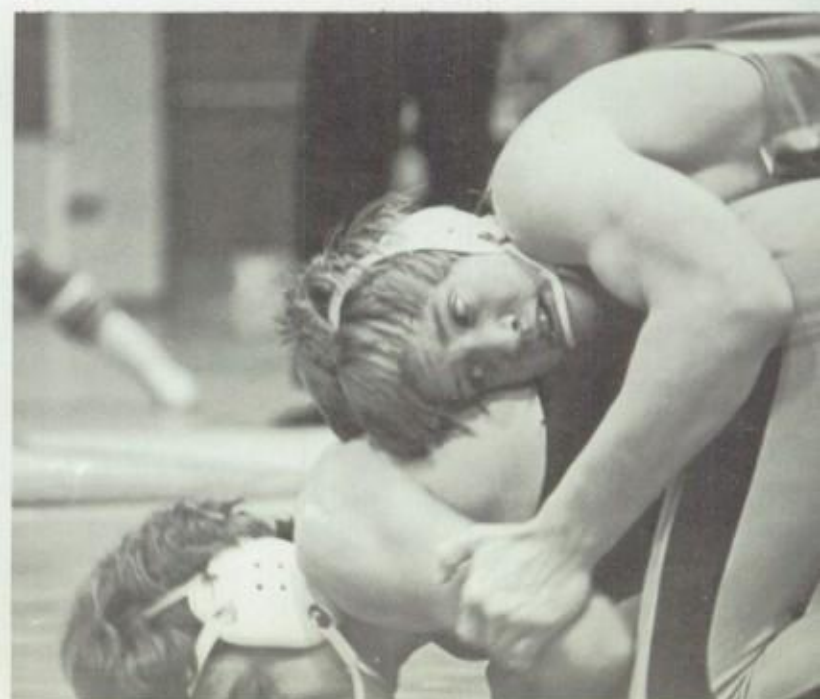

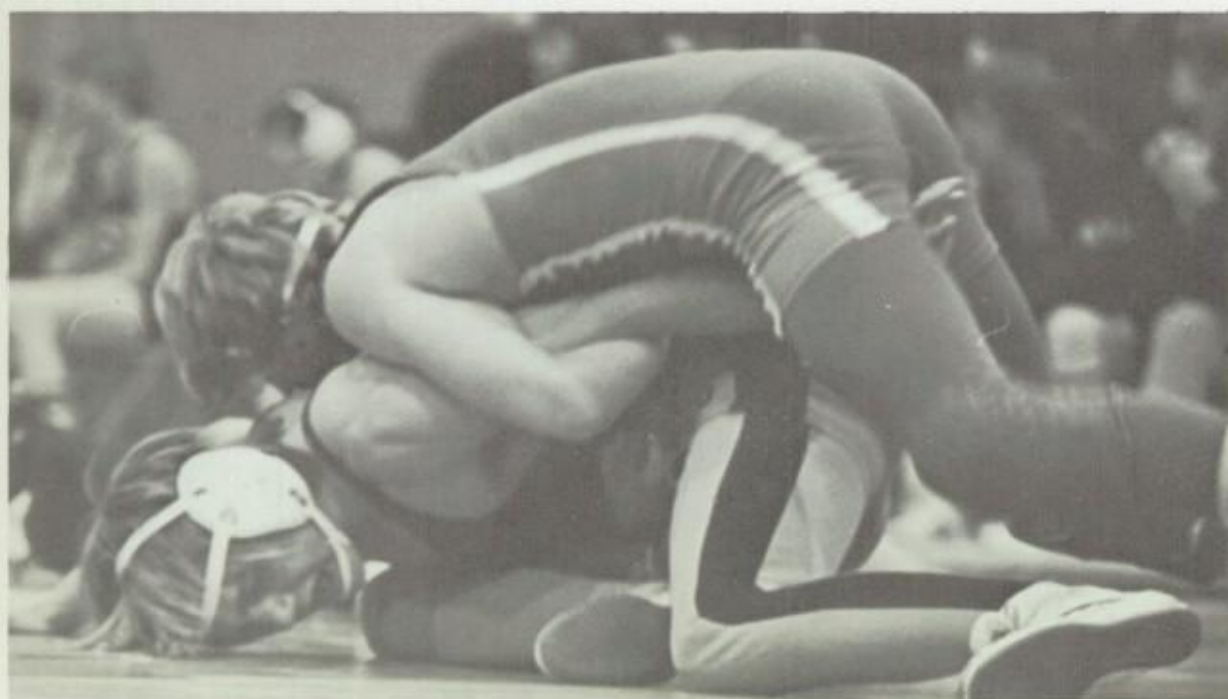

Racking up the pts. was the theme for this year's mat men. Having one of the best seasons ever for the wrestlers, they were named #1 in class AA at mid-season. This was a first for the grapplers of Collins. We took PRIDE AND STRENGTH with us to the tournaments. Wrapping up FIRST PLACE in the Fulton, South Metro, and Area Tournaments, we made it just like any other match. There was no stopping this year's team as they set and broke school records.

We had played hard, we were tired, and our spirit was down. The fans were wondering why we didn't just give up. But we stayed and showed our character for our homecoming game. From a 6 point deficit in the opening minutes, our defense kept the opposing team from scoring.

The crowd went wild in the closing seconds as a pass was thrown for a touchdown. The score was tied 6-6. But at the last moment misfortune struck again as the extra point was missed. Although it was a tie, we felt we had won because of our determination and comeback.

"T.D. ... If only the whole season could have been this way. We came so close to winning so many times, but we just couldn't make it happen. I guess we just weren't destined to win this year."

Crowds are a mass of faces that remain nameless as a whole. A mixture of boogies to the left and then to the right, all the time knowing that the most we can do is fight. You are the fan that has knees imprinted in your back, confetti in your hair, ears, socks, and underwear with melted ice underneath. Countless amounts of change, combs, shoes and coats are lost forever in the deep, dark void underneath the bleachers. Crowds are a mass of faces but they are separate individuals.

Student Council

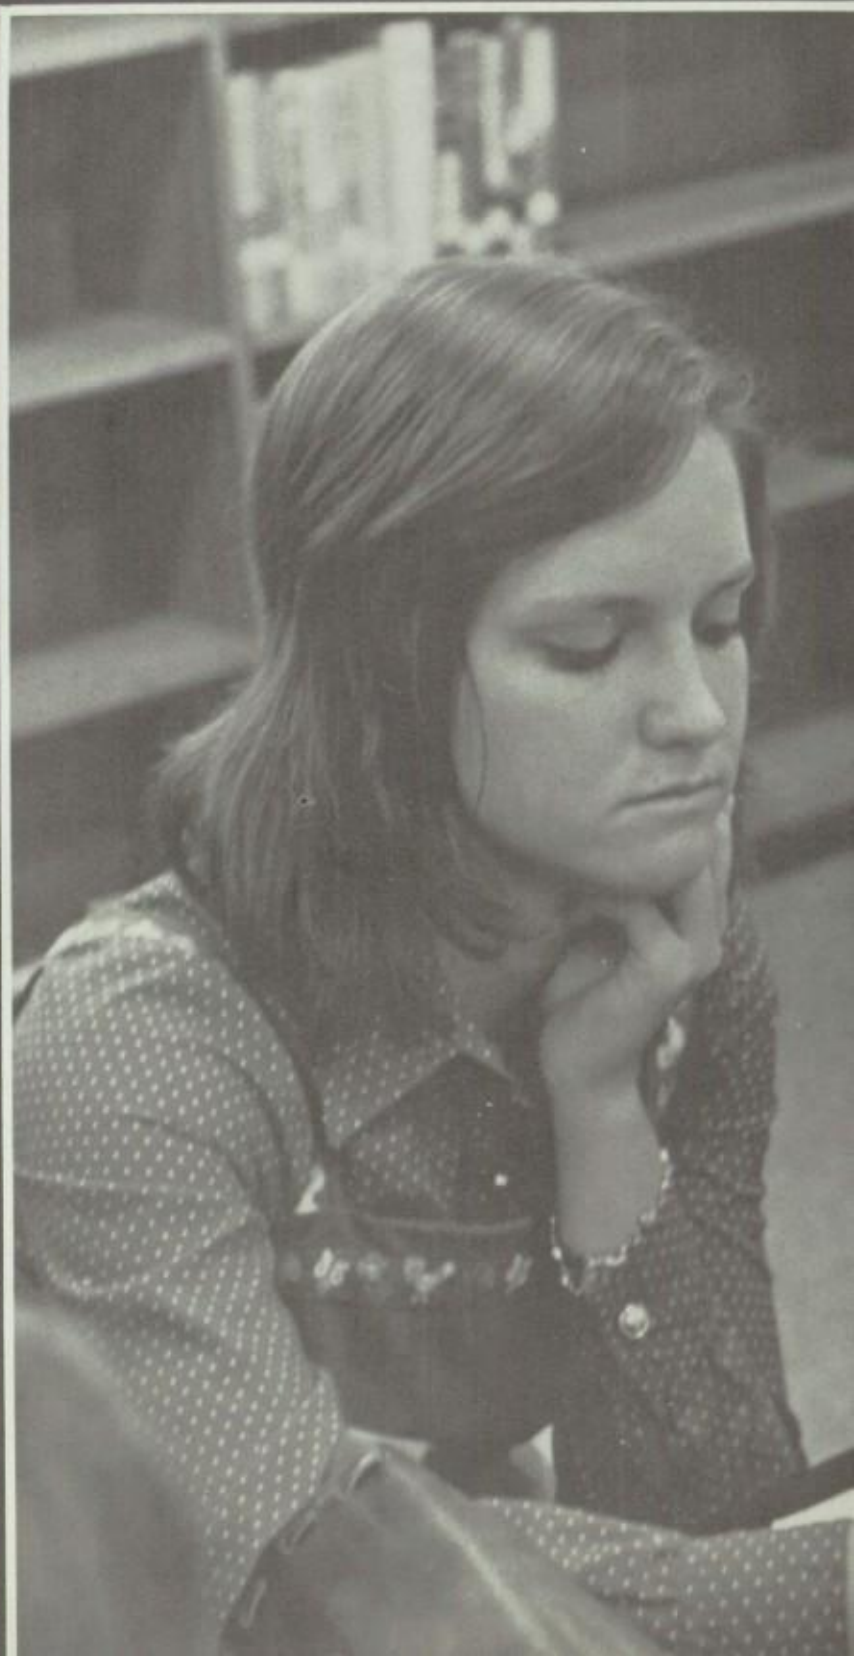

Student Council

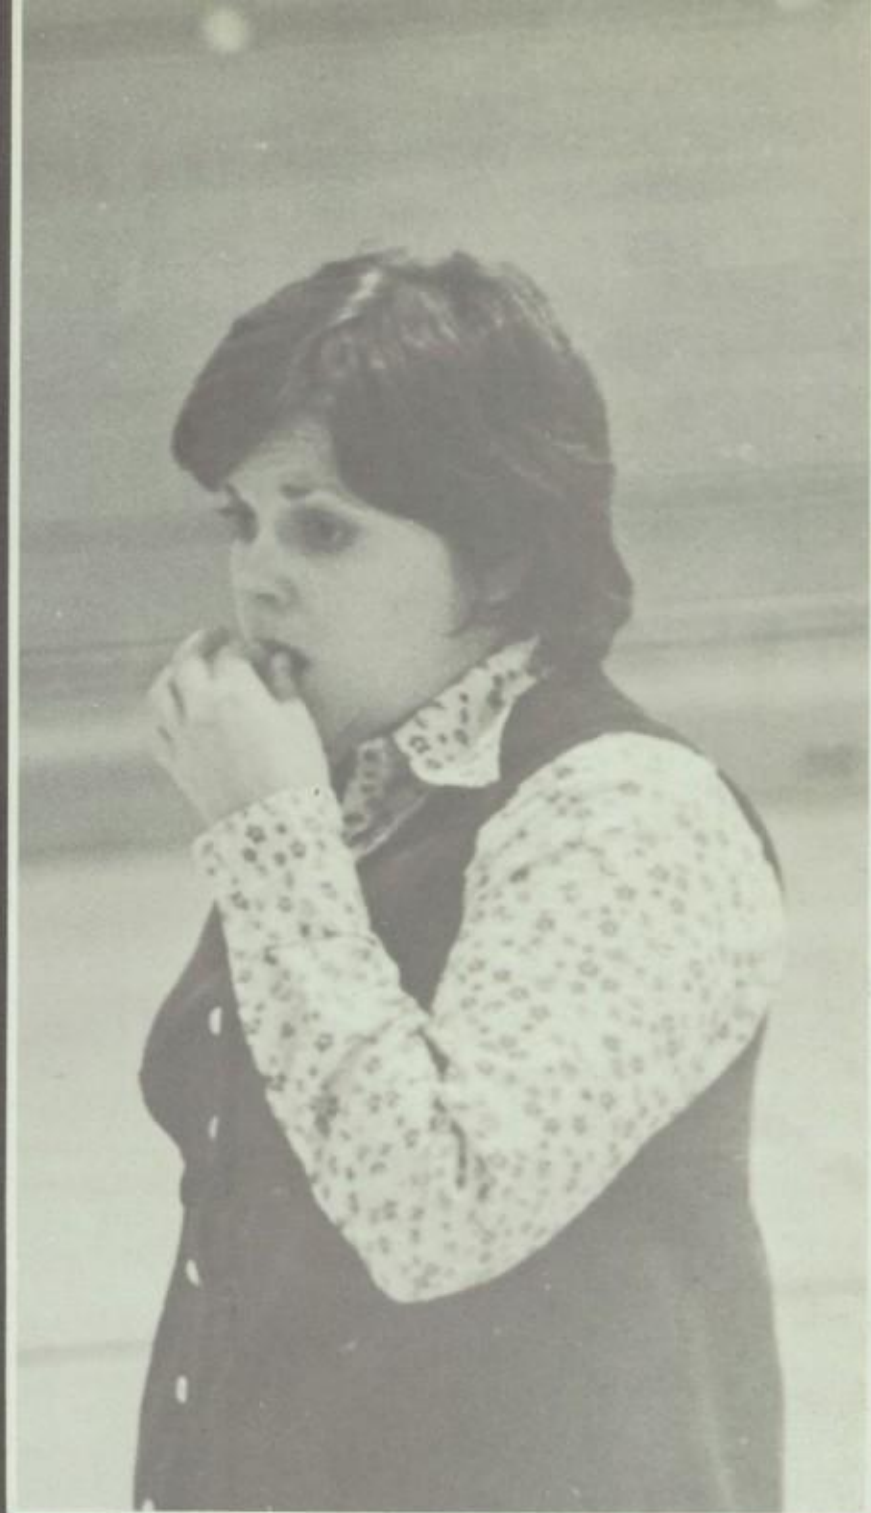

The Student Council's aim is to create a better understanding between the faculty and the student body, to emphasize unity and harmony, and to promote spirit and dedication toward the school.

Executive

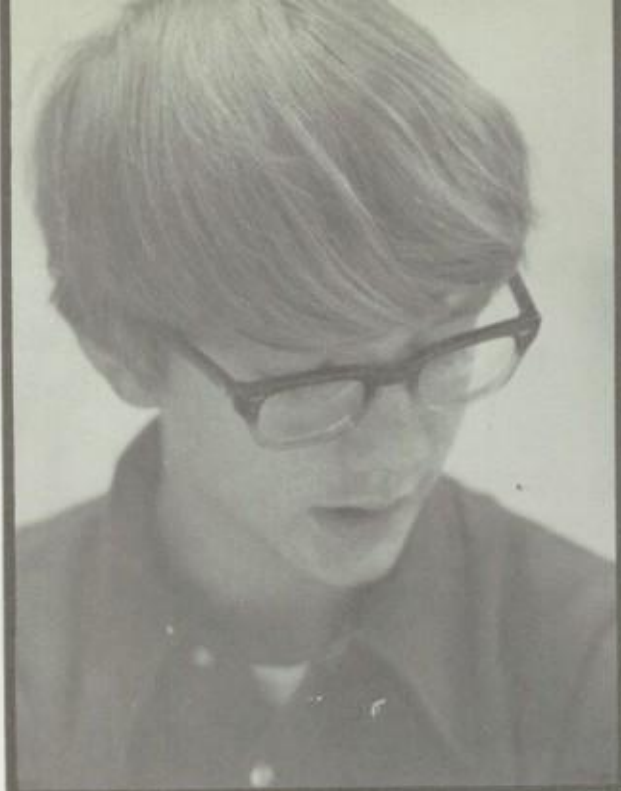

Drawing the student and faculty closer and closer by getting needs and ideas across to one another, the executive council is greatly responsible for the harmony of our student body. Not governing but representing, not leading but guiding, they strive to achieve a better atmosphere and over all attitude for each and every student.

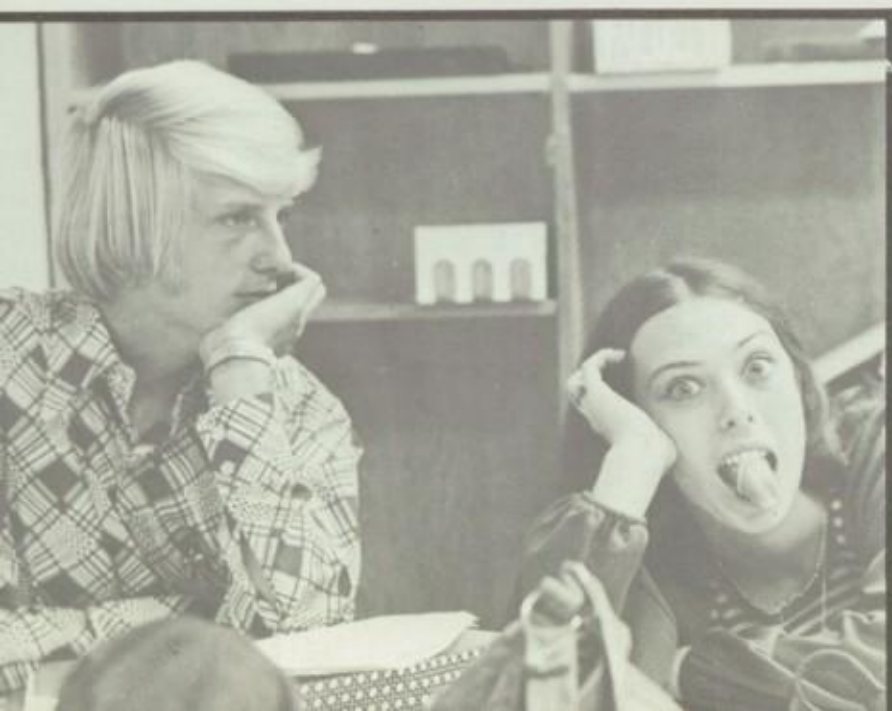

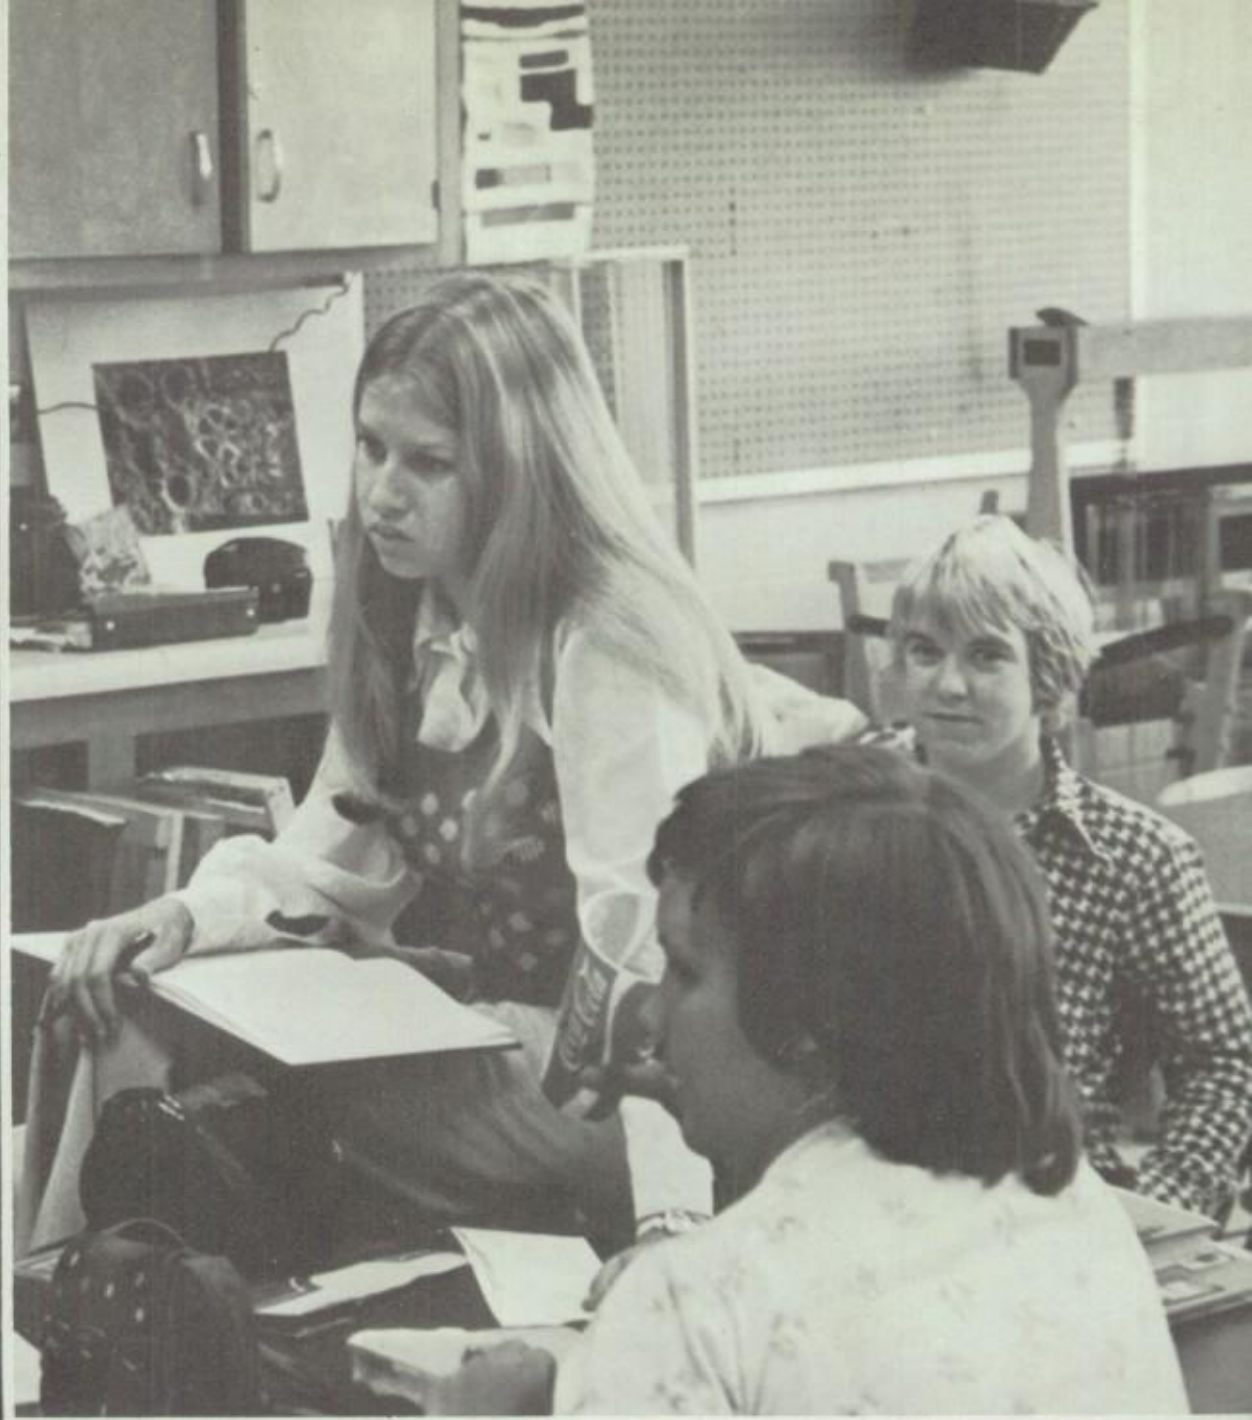

Confined to one small, over crowded, green and white room, eighteen demented minds combined their talents (?) and efforts (?) to publish a few pages for the rest of the student body. Working with broken croppers and cracked rulers to the tune of a static filled radio, we have created this book through tears and laughter. We hope that you will get as much out of it as we put into it.

CATALUS STAFF

Playing shortstop, left field, and third base for the North Clayton Softball Team, you could say Loraine Hall definitely likes sports.

During basketball season she played for Southwest Christian Church. With her help and that of her teammates they placed first in the tournaments and second in the league.

This is Martha Jett's last year of showing animals at shows. She has owned 24 animals in the past seven years. Her goal is to get these animals in their prime for the State Steer Show in the spring. She has represented Georgia in two national showmanship events, once for the Angus Association and last year for the Hereford Association. She has two Charolais steers, one Angus steer, one Hereford steer, one Angus bull, and one Angus Heifer. "These are my pets."

Because of his Father's and brother's interest in HO scale trains, Wayne Carter took over and created himself his own freight yard. He has about forty feet of track and thirty-four cars. He has eight engines, priced at about $20 each and twenty-six cars priced from $2 each on up. He has been collecting them for the past year and plans to continue his hobby.

Robert Sterling's favorite hobby is coin collecting. He started his hobby about two years ago because he thought that one day these coins might be worth a lot of money. He collects all kinds of coins from Australia, Brazil, Africa, Germany, and the U.S. Right now he estimates his collection to be worth over $150.

we never stop to wonder till a person's gone
we never yearn to know him till he's traveled on when someone is around us we never stop to ask hey, what's behind your mirror? hey, who's beneath your mask?
till a person's gone
till he's packed and traveled on when someone is around us we don't know what we're seeing we take a polaroid picture to find the human being i think perhaps tomorrow i'll try to make a friend to really get to know him instead of pretend i'll ask him if his feet hurt has he burdens to be shared and if he doesn't walk away i'll ask him if he's scared
if his eyes don't turn to stone i'll ask him if he's scared to be alone

For the past three years Robby Weber has been mastering the art of beekeeping. Robby and his family work with their 40 hives mostly on weekends. These are located in Cedartown, Cartersville, Carrollton, and College Park. The hives brought in about 1400 lbs. of honey in 1974. Robby says although it is a hobby it does bring in a little side money.

About three years ago a friend of Bruce Harris's took him to a motorcycle race. The next time Bruce decided to try it for himself. Since then he has won twenty-three trophies and about $400. Bruce rides a Bultaco 250 or a Kawasaki 100 at places like Holiday Downs and Jacksonville, Florida. One day he hopes to race professionally at the places.

To leave Collins after our years here saddens some and makes others happy. But one thing we have in common is that we leave with education of sorts, memories, and facing a new challenge. It is the challenge of being new in a world as a memory, the Collins class of '75.

Guy Sayles

Going to school for twelve years with pretty much the same people can get attaching. Learning, experiencing, and just plain growing up with each other will soon become a memory just as day by day living does. We all must face the future some day and we must also realize just what it is we want out of life and what we are willing to give in return. There is a serious time set aside, I think, to decide these things. I feel it is our senior year. Yet while I feel the senior year is a year of preparing yourself for your future, I think it is the best year to relax and enjoy school. It seems funny to think that in a few years I will regard these years as a mere stepping stone to life.

Lisa Burnett

—	—	—	—	—	—	—	—	—
---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---

To me, being a senior is no different than any other year I have spent in high school. Being a senior has always been looked upon with a great deal of awe and wonder, but upon becoming a senior I have found nothing awesome and wonderful about it. Don't get me wrong I really do like this school and I think the people here are really nice. It's just that I feel I have expected too much out of my senior year and was somewhat afraid of what lies ahead. As someone once wrote, "I know not where I'm going, but I'm on my way."

Mary Manza

To me, being a senior is a long awaited position that goes by much too quickly. First thing you know, you're ordering graduation invitations, caps and gowns, paying the final deposit for the senior trip, and then finally graduation. Being out in the world will offer lots of fun and hard times, so I'm not sure how I feel about getting out. The senior class is partially dedicated. By this I mean that the class is half and half. There are those who care and those who don't. But all in all, the class of '75 is the BEST!

The expressions of life are not only those of extreme joy or sorrow, but also those of everyday living. The showing of compassion and concern for the things that affect our lives directly is just as evident as the apathy and difference shown by others. In hope to better know our fellow man we must try to understand the thoughts of his mind through the expressions on his face. Through this we can try to better know and understand ourselves.

You have come far and learned much;
Yet there is still far to go. For as surely as the night will fall and the day will dawn, there will always be questions to answer. And the solution will be found as long as you continue to REACH.
